

Q16 - Hebrew

Q1. What is the type of text?

Q2. What appears to be the surrounding context of the section (primary as opposed to secondary)?

Q3. Who were these words spoken to and what would they have understood in these words conceptually, using a first century Hebraic dictionary? (Take into consideration the 'Defined Biblical Terms' as understood in First Century Mainstream Palestinian Judaism)

Q4. Does the phrase that contains the word(s) also have a figure of speech meaning, metaphorical use, and/or an ellipsis?

Q5. Apply each meaning of the primary word(s) and observe the effect it has on the immediate context.

Q6. Determine the pivotal word/words in the verse. Do the word/words in Hebrew have more than one significantly different literal meaning?

Q7. How do other versions translate this verse and what observations are there?

Q8. Discuss how this word is used in the rest of this book, by this author (if he wrote other books), the Old Testament as a whole, the OT Greek (LXX), and the Dead Sea Scrolls?

Q9. What do the other key words mean (on their face)?

Q10. Can any relationships be determined between the key word(s) and/or phrase(s) such as contrast, condition, comparison, result, purpose, etc?

Q11. What situation, event, statement, or argument possibly led up to this passage or resulted from this passage?

Q12. Since "God does nothing except it is revealed to His prophets first" (Amos 3:7), are there any OT prophecies that can give any insight to the subject being discussed?

Q13. Are there any old Hebraic writings including Rabbahs, Qumran (Dead Sea Scrolls), the Apocrypha, the Pseudepigrapha, Sibylline Oracles, Rabbinic, and/or Early Church Fathers writings (in the first six centuries) that reflect on this passage?

Q14. What is the history of the interpretation of this passage?

Q15. Is there any additional light shed from a grammatical analysis of the Hebrew parts of speech or the reverse engineering/reconstruction of the LXX Greek back into Hebrew/Aramaic?

Q16. What have the commentators and scholars written about this passage?

List any other Considerations, the Weight of Evidence Summary, Conclusion, Observances, and any Expanded “Commentary” Translation.
